Ernst&Young

Debra recently joined EY from IBM to lead our State and Local Government Sector. While at IBM, she held a variety of leadership positions, including the Vice President for Government and Public Sector Consulting where she led 2,300 public sector consultants under the Strategy and Transformation and the Business Analytics and Optimization service lines, as well the IBM Center for the Business of Government. Prior to joining IBM, she worked at the US Office of Management and Budget and co-authored the Chapter on Underwriting Credit and Insurance chapter in the US Budget.

She was selected as one of the Top 25 Consultants by Consulting Magazine in 2007 and a recipient of the 2009 University of Maryland alumni award for her professional achievements and humanitarian efforts. Debra is also a frequent writer and presenter on public sector management issues and co-authored the book, Managing Public Dollars: New Rules, New Roles, New Opportunities for Federal Financial Managers, a guide to Federal CFOs and financial managers, and has testified in front of the House Oversight and Government Reform Committee.
