

Louise Dann
Strategic Partnerships Specialist
United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA)

Louise has worked in international development for ten years creating new models for collaboration with non-traditional partners. Currently she manages UNFPA partnerships with private sector, foundations and the general public, promoting dialogue between the UN and private sector, nurturing relationships and ideas, and translating ideas into impact. Louise has a special interest in improving the wellbeing of women within supply chains and company operations.

Louise has a PhD in retrovirology (HIV) and has worked in both public and private sector, from hospitals to pharmaceutical law. Before UNFPA, Louise worked for the Global Fund to fight AIDS, tuberculosis and malaria, and also worked for UNAIDS in Vietnam designing HIV treatment and testing programs specifically focused on women.