

Rini Simon Khanna
Media person, Anchor/Moderator

Rini Simon Khanna, has majored in English literature from Delhi University and has done her post graduation in History. She also has a PG diploma in Journalism IIMC, New Delhi.

With a career that spans more than three decades now, Rini began producing and hosting programmes and interviews on India's National Radio at 13 and was soon selected to read the Prime time National News on All India Radio. In addition, she does commentary on prestigious occasions such as Independence day, Republic day etc for television and radio.

She was handpicked from Radio to anchor the National news on Delhi Doordarshan, the premier Indian television channel. In addition to presenting news, Rini is an experienced Voice talent, rendering commentary and voiceovers for documentaries, advertisements and feature-films. She is the well recognised voice of MTNL, American Express, the Delhi Metro, Airtel and scores of other organisations. She also anchors international and national conferences, cultural shows and seminars for prestigious organisations, UN agencies, corporate groups and Government departments.

Rini Simon Khanna was among 25 Persons of the Year selected by the Limca Book Of Records to commemorate their Silver Anniversary in 2014.